Justification

to the draft resolution concerning distribution of the Company's profit for 2021

According to article 395 § 2 point 2 of the Commercial Companies Code, the agenda of an ordinary general meeting should include adoption of a resolution on profit distribution or loss coverage.

According to article 396 § 1 of the Commercial Companies Code, to cover a loss, a supplementary capital should be created, to which at least 8% of the profit for a given financial year is transferred, until the capital reaches at least one-third of the share capital.

The proposed dividend payment in the total amount of PLN 66,424,641.28 means the payment of PLN 1,28 per share. The dividend payout ratio will amount to 44.16% of the Company's consolidated profit. The proposed dividend amount is consistent with the Company's dividend policy.

When proposing the dividend amount, the Management Board took into account, among others:

- financial results achieved by the Asseco South Eastern Europe Group in 2021,
- investment needs resulting from the implementation of the Asseco South Eastern Europe Group's strategy,
- dividend rates and payout ratios applied by comparable companies,
- liquidity needs of the ASEE Group, which will depend on the current and expected market conditions, the amount of liabilities arising from current operations and debt service, as well as on optimization of the Asseco South Eastern Europe Group's financing structure.

According to article 348 § 3 of the Polish Companies Act, the dividend date in a public company and a company that is not a public company, whose shares are registered in a securities depository, is set by the ordinary general meeting.

According to article 348 § 4 of the Polish Companies Act, the ordinary general meeting determines the dividend date as a date falling not earlier than five days and not later than three months after the date of the resolution concerning the distribution of profit. If the resolution of the ordinary general meeting does not specify the dividend record date, the dividend record date shall be the date falling five days after the date of the resolution concerning the distribution of profit.

According to article 348 § 5 of the Polish Companies Act, dividends shall be paid on the date set forth in the resolution of the General Shareholders Meeting, and if the resolution of the General Shareholders Meeting does not specify a payment date, the dividend shall be paid on the date set forth by the Supervisory Board. The dividend payment date shall be set within three months from the dividend date. If neither the General Meeting nor the Supervisory board determines a time limit for dividend payment, the dividend shall be paid immediately after the dividend record date.

In addition, according to § 121 section 2 of the Detailed Rules of Operation of the National Depository for Securities, the dividend payment date may be at the earliest on the fifth day after the date of determination of rights to dividend. According to § 9 section 1 of the Rules of the National Depository for Securities, the deadlines specified in days exclude days which are statutory non-working days and Saturdays.

The dividend date and the dividend payment date have been determined in accordance with the aforementioned rules.

In view of the foregoing, a draft of this resolution is presented for consideration at the Ordinary General Meeting.
